

Harbor Nurses Plan Sixth Annual Waffle Breakfast

Harbor Area Nurses will chat with old friends and new over waffles and coffee next Sunday, July 12, at a breakfast to be held in patio setting at the San Pedro home of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Mudy.

This year the event, the sixth annual to be sponsored by the association, is under the sponsorship of Mrs. Donella Draskowski. Mrs. Margaret Birch will preside over the mixing bowl.

Other committee leaders assisting Mrs. Draskowski are Mesdames Helen Scott, Rosena Adelman, Virginia Backlund, arrangements; Nancy Noland, Dorothy Rudback, Shirley Neal, suppliers; Jean McAlary and Miss Marian Taylor, ticket and finance; Mmes. Ellen Trainor, Margaret Foy, Margaret Doherty, and Misses Mary Belch, Sarah Regan, and Miriam Pearce, hospitality.

Wattresses will be Misses Patty Backlund, Florence McAlary, Judith Scott, and Mary Draskowski. "We hope the public will come and enjoy our waffles," Mrs. Doherty, publicity chairman, said. "The cost is reasonable and the cause is good as you will enable us to carry on with our student nursing scholarships."

Nearly 300 Attend Legion 'Independence Day' Dance

Nearly 300 people crowded the American Legion Hall on Border Ave. last Friday night to celebrate the birth of our country at the "Independence Day Dance" sponsored by Bert S. Crossland Post 170, American Legion. Red, white and blue crepe paper streamers and banners blazed throughout the hall to remind the festive crew of the flag of freedom, and firecrackers

Marilyn Harris Honored With Bridal Shower

A hand-crocheted, heirloom cloth, pink and white decorated cake, and bouquets of glads featured table appointments last Thursday night when Mrs. Elsie Smith, 1325 Engracia Ave., honored her daughter, Marilyn Harris, with a pre-nuptial shower at the Moose Hall.

Bringing miscellaneous gifts for the home the bride-to-be will establish following her marriage to Robert A. Weber of Santa Ana on July 15 were over 40 Women of the Moose, friends and relatives.

Bazaar Stitching Slated For Next Betsy Ross Meet

Betsy Ross Sewing Club members will journey to the Long Beach home of Mrs. Jeanette Clark next Tuesday, July 14, to continue stitching on articles for their September bazaar. The needle and thread session will begin at 10 a.m.

All those desiring transportation may call Mrs. Florence Viellenave, FAIRfax 8-1819, Mrs. Althea Smith, publicity chairman, said.

PLAN SUNDAY PICNIC

"Come and enjoy the day with old friends," Thomas Stack, chairman, said this week in urging all former residents of New York and New Jersey to attend the Society picnic at Bixby Park next Sunday, July 12.

A hand concert and vaudeville show will highlight the afternoon entertainment, he added.

CARD FETE SLATED BY MOMS CLUB

In an effort to raise funds to send their daughters to summer camp, the Mothers Club of Girl Scout Troop 395 will sponsor a public card party Saturday night, July 18, at the WALTERIA Recreation Hall.

They will begin at 8 o'clock, featuring canasta, pinoche, and bridge games. When the scores are tallied, prizes will be awarded to the winners in each game, and refreshments will be served.

A 50-cent donation is the admission price.

AT Y BOARD MEETING

Summer Conference Fun, Learning Told by Y-Teens

"Gee, we learned a lot and it was fun and everything." This was the enthusiastic response expressed by one of the teenage delegates reporting to Y-teens and YWCA board members at headquarters building in San Pedro on the two summer conferences held recently.

Fred Coopers Expect Guests

Expected this week at the 1225 Beach Ave. home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Cooper are his nephew and family, the Alfred Coopers, of Swift Current, Can. The vacationers plan to spend two weeks visiting various picturesque spots in Southern California, before returning to the northern clime.

Fourth of July also was occasion for entertaining in the Cooper household. Invited in for dinner were Mr. and Mrs. Walter Reuter of Long Beach.

WALTERIANS PLAN HALLOWEEN FETE

Plans for the Halloween carnival highlighted last Thursday's Walters PTA executive board session, held at the 3521 Willock Rd. home of Mrs. Wesley Crocheron.

Discussion was led by Mrs. C. W. Johnson, ways and means chairman, who is in charge of the event. Other planners present were Mesdames William T. Allen, Joseph Pene, Hector Herrera, Henry Fink, Carl Cramer, Glenn Karhu, Bruce Howey, and Crocheron.

RED CROSS LEADER APPOINTS AIDES

Mrs. Gordon Jones, block recruitment chairman of Torrance branch, American National Red Cross, this week announced the appointment of two co-chairmen, Mmes. William Cochran and David McMillan, who will assist her throughout the 1953-54 season.

Other committee members include Mesdames, Richard Beecher, Joe Helphand, Walt West, Paul Loranger, Walt Sharon, and Leo McMillan.

Local Eastern Star Holds District Courtesy Night

Standing out as a rose jewel in a setting of white last Thursday night when Torrance Chapter, Order of the Eastern Star, held District Courtesy Night was Henrietta Russell of Point Fermin, who acted as worthy matron during the ceremonies.

Surrounding the rose taffeta-gowned leader were officers of various chapters of the 90th District, gowned in white, who filled other stations.

Special escort was accorded Worthy Matron Joan Simpson and Worthy Patron Thomas Foster of the local chapter. Deputy Grand Matron Edna Babcock, many past matrons and patrons from throughout the district, and all worthy matrons and worthy patrons were escorted to the East and presented.

Charles Gorman of Wilmington, serving as worthy patron, presided over Good of the Order. Brief talks were delivered during this part of the evening by Foster, Harold Savage, and Mesdames Babcock, Russell, Simpson, and Margaret Bettinson. Colorful Independence Day motif highlighted banquet hall decor for the refreshment hour which followed. Red, white, and blue streamers hung from the center of the ceiling to all four corners of the room. Similar streamers, paper snappers and giant red firecrackers were employed in table appointments.

Vacation at Oceanside

Now enjoying the sea breezes at Oceanside are Mrs. Robert R. Dexter and son Steven, 1625 Juniper Ave.

The duo left for the vacation spot Tuesday, planning to visit friends Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Kitchins. They expect to return to Torrance this week-end.
